

PURISSIMA PIPELINE

NOW IS THE TIME TO CHANGE YOUR CLOCKS!

Your irrigation clocks, that is! Fall is here and there is no need to water your gardens with the same program as you used during the summer months. As summer turns into Fall, you should cut your watering time by at least half. With the shorter, cooler days and rain activity we have had this month, the amount of water evaporation is less now.

TIP: An easy way to reduce your water usage is to use the percent adjust feature (most irrigation clocks have one). Reducing your current watering schedule down to 50% or more is appropriate for this time of year.
